Discovery and ignition

We will support the discovery of as-yet-unknown challenges and the creation of new business ideas through real experiences and cross-business discussions.

Experience program – Contents –

We will provide various content that stimulates your imagination and lets you experience a sustainable future through Fujitsu's technologies.

Innovation Theater

Engage in a fictitious company simulation in a highly realistic space. Using AI future prediction and real-time data analysis, you can experience sophisticated business decision-making at an overwhelming speed.

Innovation Hub

Experience the transformative power of AI and data utilization by Uvance, driving business innovation and creating new business value. Witness the rapid realization of your vision through demonstrations and advanced case studies.

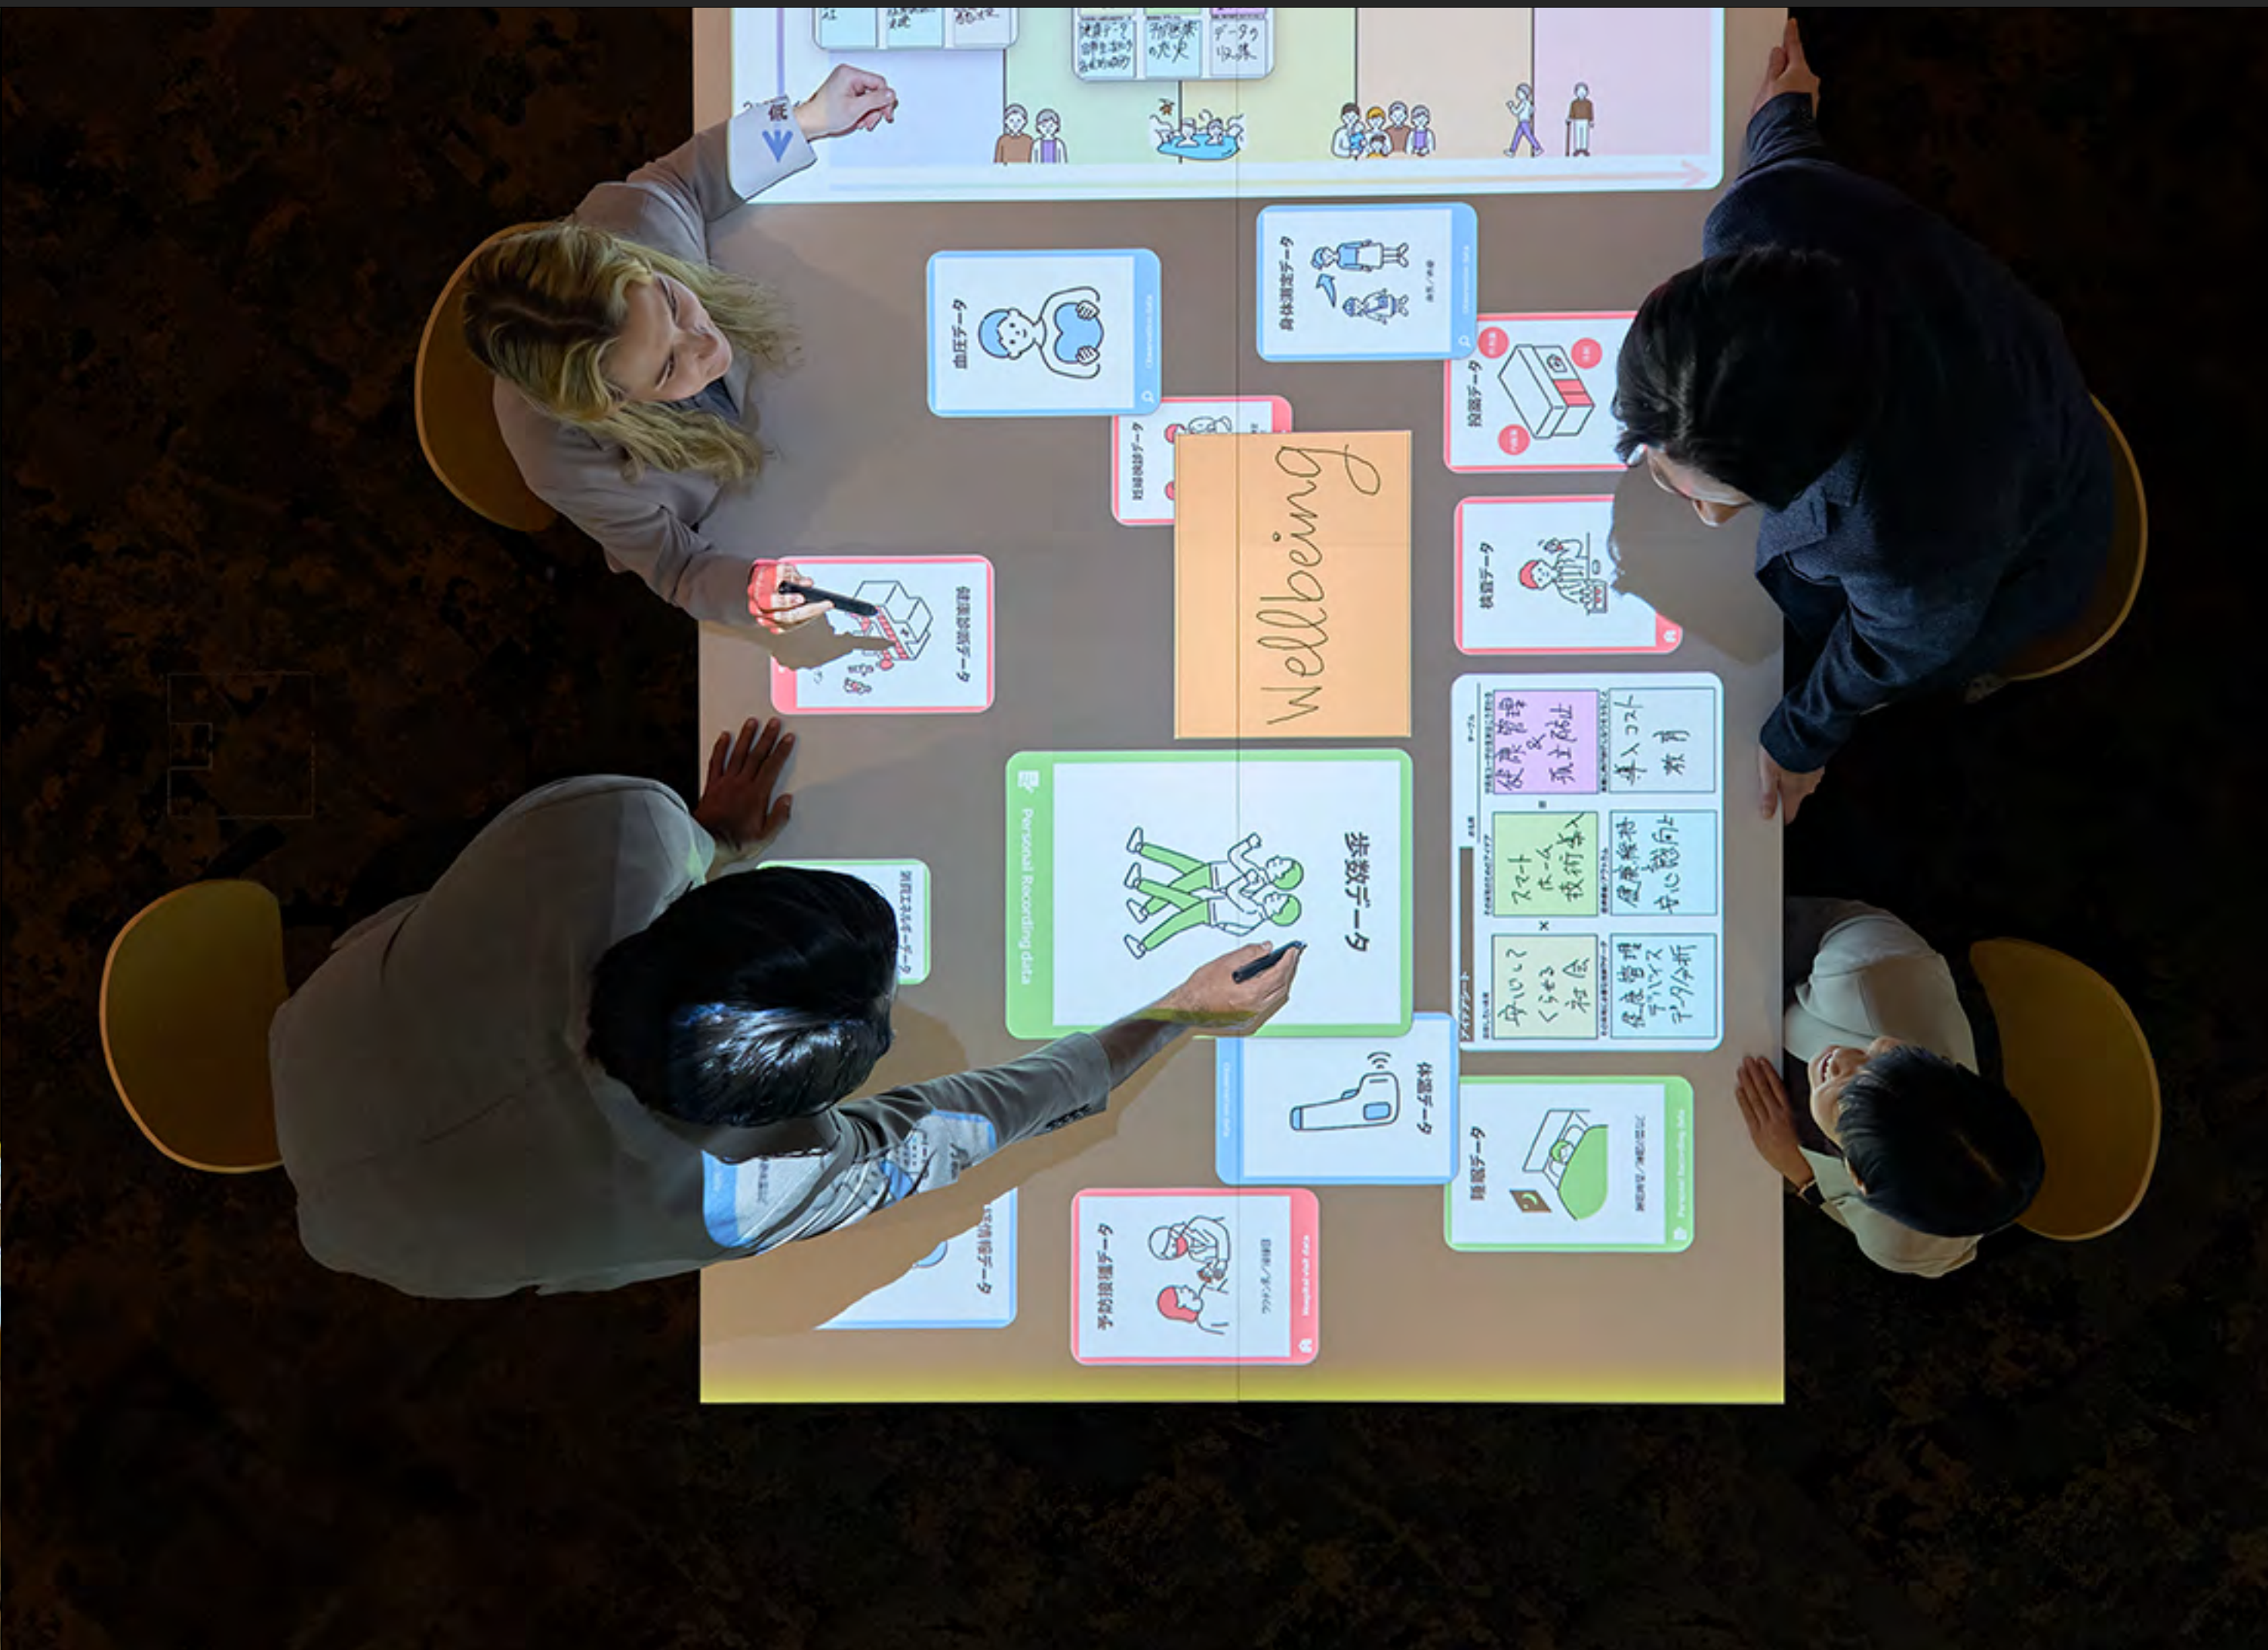

Innovation Lab

Immerse yourself in a digitalized store, experiencing both the consumer and retailer perspectives, within a space simulating a physical store. This is a practical co-creation space, using technology to find optimal strategies against the challenges facing our customers and society, such as labor shortages, changes in consumer behavior, and growing environmental awareness.

Experience program – Workshop –

We will provide workshop environments to unravel the challenges our customers face and lead to the development of concrete solutions.

Features

Participants will explore these challenges through practical work by engaging in active discussions and moving their hands.
Making full use of digital tools that stimulate the senses, workshops will be effectively facilitated by sales representatives who help resolve a wide range of issues at private companies, public administrations and in cross-industry situations.
